Dear Municipal Clerk:

Monmouth University is offering a half day seminar on "Thinking Inside the Box" - a discussion of guiding principles for state and local government finance. The seminar will focus on the tensions between the practical and ideal approaches to financial disclosure, public approval of debt, reporting of liabilities and the struggle to pay current expenditures. Speakers include Governor James J. Florio, former Director of Pensions Douglas Forrester, former Treasurer John McCormac, and DLGS Deputy Director Marc Pfeiffer. The free seminar will be held from 9:00am - 12:00pm on Wednesday, February 11, 2009 in West Long Branch. The seminar has been approved for CEUs. To register, contact 732-263-5860 or polling@monmouth.edu. For more information: <http://www.monmouth.edu/polling/admin/polls/InsideBox.pdf>

Municipal and Freeholder Clerks are asked to share this with their elected officials and other appropriate staff.
