Downtown New Jersey...

ANNUAL CONFERENCE POSTPONED

Tuesday, September 28, Red Bank, NJ

Dear DNJ Members & Friends,

The officers of Downtown NJ have made the decision to postpone our 2010 conference planned for Tuesday, September 28 in Red Bank. We did not reach this decision easily but only after carefully looking at the facts.

It should not be a surprise to learn the poor economy, which has affected municipalities and businesses, is a consideration. Sponsorships are limited and spread thinly at this time. Based on feedback, the committee decided that we needed to be sensitive to our members and put our energies into providing low cost, timely and informative programs to help our stakeholders during these stressful times and major financial cutbacks.

The Executive Committee will be meeting soon to discuss options. We will keep you apprised of our future programming. In the meantime, we welcome your thoughts and suggestions on how we can best help you through this year of economic challenges! DNJ will continue to be your Resource for Downtown development, revitalization and retail business district success.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Miller Prunty
President
