RE: New posting on Shared Services Board

A new posting has been made to the League's Shared Services Board.

Warren-Morris Council of Governments has posted information on a shared services presentation.

To view this posting visit www.njlm.org/forum1

The League's Shared Services Board offers a place where municipalities and their departments can post requests for the sharing of their services. Sharing services and equipment can result in significant dollar savings for municipalities.

Posting is easy. Simply follow the instructions on our site at the above web address. By providing your contact information in your ad, others perusing the board may contact you when interested.
