ADMINISTRATIVE REPORTS

President Nicastro: Thank you. Administrative Reports.

Mr. Canning: Thank you, Mr. President. Several things from the Mayor. He wishes an easy fast for those who are observing Yom Kippur. This Saturday, there’s several events taking place in Mount Olive Township, one is the Starry Skies Event from 4:00 pm to 10:00 pm. The pre-sale tickets are $15.00 and $25.00 on site, wine and craft beers with hors d’oeuvres and live music. Also on Saturday, is Casino Night at the Budd Lake Fire Department, the doors open at 6:30 pm, 7:00 pm to 10:00 pm is game play, tickets are at the door and they range from $25.00 to $30.00. There’s a senior citizen discount. Third, Bentley Commons at Paragon Village is hosting Bill Sturm, an oil painting event from 6:30 pm to 9:00 pm again this Saturday. On October 14th, from 8:00am to 11:00 pm, there’s a presentation from the CAP, “When the Target is You” and it’s $10.00 per person. Last on the Administrative side, I have nothing for today. I do want to publicly give my extreme gratitude for working with probably the finest Clerk I ever have in my years of service and it’s been a pleasure for four years. Lisa’s professionalism in welcoming me to the Township and giving me all the nitty-gritty of how to survive and all the sage advice and I’m going to miss busting open that door and giving everybody in the Clerk’s Office a heart attack about three times a day.
Mrs. Lashway: Thank you.

Mr. Canning: It's been my pleasure and I'm going to miss you very much.

Mrs. Lashway: Thank you.

Mr. Canning: That's all I have.

OLD BUSINESS

President Nicastro: Thank you. Any Old Business? Mrs. Labow.

Mrs. Labow: I just have one more question not to belabor the Stacking Ordinance, but on the...when you're going to specify who's responsible, how are you going to...the property owner...would be responsible for because I'm thinking in terms of, if it's not a rental situation, say if somebody has their kids living there and they're in Florida or something and their kid...I'm just trying to...I just want to make it very generic, but specific.

Mr. Roman: Generically specific.

Mrs. Labow: Yes. Very generically specific. It's not renters, it's not homeowners, it's whoever owns that property...

Mr. Pasek: We'll be clear it's the owner...

Mrs. Labow: ...who's on the deed.

Mr. Pasek: ...and/or landlord, something to that affect. I'll play with the language.

Mrs. Labow: I just want to just do it one time and that's it.

Mr. Pasek: Sure.

Mrs. Labow: Thanks.

NEW BUSINESS

Mr. Mania: Mr. President.

President Nicastro: Mr. Mania.

Mr. Mania: There's a house on the corner of Mount Olive Road and Colonial Way where I don't know how anybody could live in it.

Mr. Ferrante: It's the blue house?

Mr. Mania: There's a whole in the roof, the porch is falling down...

Mrs. Labow: Somebody is living there.

Mr. Mania: Pardon?

Mrs. Labow: Somebody is living there.

Mr. Mania: Somebody is living in there because I see a car parked in the driveway.

President Nicastro: Mr. Canning.

Mr. Canning: Our Zoning Officer is aware of that location and he's been taking steps. I don't have iworqs in front of me, but I do know that he's aware of that and he's been working with both the Health Department and the resident. I can try to get a report for Council subsequent to this meeting.
Mr. Mania: Thank you.

LEGAL MATTERS

Mr. Pasek: Just one item tonight, Council President. Sean again has stolen my thunder it looks like. On behalf of John Dorsey, Fred, myself and our entire office, I just wanted to congratulate Lisa on a long and accomplished career and we wish her the best of luck on her retirement.

Mrs. Lashway: Thank you.

One other note, they keep track of how many residents and guests come to the library, they estimated in the month of August 9,700 people visited the library.

Mrs. Labow: Wow.

Mr. Ferrante: That’s a lot.

PUBLIC PORTION

COUNCIL COMMENTS

Mr. Amaniada: I just want to wish Lisa, our Township Clerk, the best retirement and I hope she will have all the best in her retirement. The Town is going to miss Lisa because she has been a fixture here, everybody who talks about Mount Olive Township, they talk about Lisa. We’re going to miss you and you’re the best.

Mrs. Lashway: Thank you, Mr. Amaniada.

President Nicastro: Mrs. Labow.

Mrs. Labow: This is always really difficult when we have to say... well we’re not going to say goodbye, we’re going to say see you later and I have to say I know Lisa is leaving us in very good hands, so that’s the only thing that makes this a little bit easier to take, that we know that Lisa did a great job in making sure her stuff was very, very well trained and knows... just fabulous people. We also have Jessica here tonight, who was also one of our staff members and she came by for the farewell meeting and I want to say, Lisa, I don’t think I ever would’ve been able to be as good at this job as I try to be, actually, hopefully I’m very good at this, without all of your help and guidance, it was like coming in as a new Council person and not knowing what anything was, you always took the time to help me, all of us, explain what this, that and the other means, we needed to know the history on it or how do we look this up, you were always right there and without all of that help and guidance, we wouldn’t be able to do all the things that we do and stop crying because you’re going to make me cry now. Thank you so much.

Mrs. Lashway: Thank you.

Mr. Mania: I too want to wish you the best and I’m sure you’re going to enjoy your retirement, but you’re leaving us in good hands with Michelle and Susan, we have the best. We’re very proud. Thank you for your service.

Mrs. Lashway: Thank you.

President Nicastro: Mr. Roman.

Mr. Roman: Obviously, I’m going to miss you. If it wasn’t for you, I think with your sage advice when I first started, I would have committed at least a few misdemeanors behind this dais. Thank you for keeping me out of...

Mr. Mania: Harm’s way.

Mr. Roman: Yes.

Mrs. Lashway: It was a pleasure.

Mr. Roman: I wish you all the best of luck and obviously I’m envious of you being able to go on and enjoy your retirement. I’m sure you’ve given sage advice to your replacement and told her how hard to pull on the reigns when it comes to me, at least. Thank you.

Mrs. Lashway: Thank you.

President Nicastro: Mr. Stewart.

Mr. Stewart: I feel those comments, and by the way she did save me from you. Have a great retirement. Thanks for all your help, especially with me jumping in, in the middle of the process. Thank you very much.
President Nicastro: Mr. Ferrante.

Mr. Ferrante: I too, thank you for everything you’ve done for us. You’ve helped me out personally, various questions, you’re always quick to respond and being only on the Council for just a few years, you’ve been very helpful and I greatly appreciate it. We’re going to miss you and good luck. Enjoy.

Mrs. Lashway: Thank you.

President Nicastro: I’m going to repeat everything anyway, but we will miss you, I will especially. Michelle has get used to me, I probably send you things a few times over asking for the same thing because I’m still disorganized enough that I keep forgetting things and losing them or I don’t remember. I appreciate all the help you’ve given me, you’ve helped me through a lot, especially a lot of times sitting up here as I make a lot of errors in this seat, so it was good to have you here. I know you’ll be around somewhere and we’ll see you on your boat and wave to you somewhere out there on the lake someday.

Mrs. Lashway: Yes.

President Nicastro: Enjoy your time, but we’ll see you around I’m sure.

Mrs. Lashway: Thank you.

President Nicastro: Anyone else? If not, a motion to adjourn?

ADJOURNMENT - Motion made and seconded. All in favor, none opposed, the meeting was adjourned at 8:07 p.m.

Joe Nicastro, Council President

I, Michelle Masser, Township Clerk of Mount Olive do hereby certify that the foregoing Minutes are a true and correct copy of the Minutes approved at a legally convened meeting of the Mount Olive Township Council duly held on October 6, 2015.
