ADMINISTRATIVE REPORTS

President Nicastro: Thank you. Administrative Reports.

Mayor Greenbaum: I have a couple, things. First of all, Happy Birthday to Councilman Roman.

Mr. Roman: It hurts being 30.

Mr. Mania: The Lord be with you.

Mr. Roman: Again.

Mayor Greenbaum: We had a great turnout for the Food Truck and Fireworks Festival. My understanding is that there was over 10,000 people who attended the event.

Mr. Roman: Only 9,000 empanadas, so that’s a complaint I’d like lodged.

Mayor Greenbaum: Please join Council President Joe Nicastro, September 11th at 8:15 am for a brief ceremony at the 911 Memorial. I will be away on Township business, so I will not be able to attend. Recreation event next Saturday…Recreations next event is Saturday, September 26th, 2015, Starry Skies Festival Wine and Craft Beer, hors d’oeuvres and live music. Tickets are $15.00 presale, $25.00 onsite from 4:00pm to 10:00pm. I’d also like to thank Weis Markets who will be providing a donation for our food pantry as a sponsor. Congratulations to Mr. Stewart who is in contention at his golf club, the Old Group.

Mrs. Labow: The Old Group?

Mayor Greenbaum: Not the Old, Old Group, just the Old Group.

President Nicastro: Just the Old Group.

Mr. Roman: Until he hit a tree several times.

Mr. Mania: Twice.

Mrs. Labow: Twice.

Mr. Roman: Good shot.

President Nicastro: Thank you. Anything Mr. Canning?

Mr. Canning: Yes, just a couple of things. The Houdaille Bridge is in place speaking from my counterpart in Stanhope today, very satisfied with it. Stanhope Environmental Committee is going to blaze the rest of the trail up to…linking up to Givaudan Braille Trail, we’ll help out if requested, but from our side Frank Wilpert, Jr. was overseeing the effort on our side. If you get a chance to go up there, it’s off of 183, it’s approaching the old steel gate watchers house at the Braille Trail down the hill from there and it’s a nice looking bridge. It was paid for by the National Recreation Trails Grant, which Kathy Murphy was able to get back in 2011/2012, so we’re going to close that out and look for a reimbursement, but it’s a nice job. Gene Buczynski did a nice job on the design of that, as well. Two other things, for the next Council meeting two promises are coming in, one is the recreation plan for Turkey Brook from the Advisory Committee and Jill, I’m going to ask her to come and at least present the long term vision as to what’s going to happen at Turkey Brook. Council asked that question, I think back in April we had spoken about that. Second, is the long awaited paving and road survey plan, both Mr. Quinn and Mr. Wilpert, Jr. will be here to present that. That will be on the 22nd.

OLD BUSINESS

NEW BUSINESS

Mrs. Labow: Actually Old Business. A question for Mr. Canning on the road, are we going to get a preview on what they’re going to discuss in case we have any further questions so they can have everything ready?
Mr. Canning: Yes. I’ve asked for a copy of the plan for ahead of time. I anticipate it’ll be in the packet, that’s been my direction at least.

Mrs. Labow: I just... I’d rather that they instead of saying we’ll get back to you on it, if they possibly can just...

Mr. Canning: I agree wholeheartedly.

Mrs. Labow: Yes. Thank you. Thank you.

President Nicastro: Mr. Mania.

Mr. Mania: Just a quick question on those 57-acres where the State is trying to embezzle $587,000.00, does the Administration need anything from the Council and what is our plan of action?

Mayor Greenbaum: After receiving the State’s response, I told the State that we weren’t interested and so we are just going to leave the property for the time being and ultimately sell the property with the restriction on it and let the developer ultimately deal with the State in terms of taking care of whatever the State’s position is.

Mr. Mania: Well, with the restriction on that, we’re going to get a lot less money for the property there’s no question.

Mayor Greenbaum: We’ll probably get $500,000.00 less, but we’re not going to come out of pocket...

President Nicastro: We’ll still be ahead.

Mayor Greenbaum: ...$500,000.00. It’s pretty clear what the State is looking for and there’s nothing... there’s really nothing we can do about it, we’re still going to see significantly greater return on our investment than had we done nothing at the time that the property became available.

Mr. Mania: Is there an appeal process, can we talk to our Legislators?

Mayor Greenbaum: We never went far enough down the process to actually appeal anything. I don’t think speaking to our Legislators at this point makes any sense whatsoever and for the time being we’ve just put it on the back burner. Until the entirety of the development on that side of town, which is something that I’ve been working on and something which I am traveling for the rest of this week comes a little bit more into focus, we don’t really have to take any position, we can just sit back at this point.

Mr. Canning: Can I add one thing?

Mayor Greenbaum: Yes.

Mr. Canning: If I could add one thing, we have two certified appraisal reports on that parcel and the appraised value is far in excess of what we paid for it, so it’s already a huge asset to the Township with or without the restrictions.

Mayor Greenbaum: Yes. Let’s not forget that when we took title to the property it was by way of settlement to the tax appeal, which we would have paid out the same amount of money and not gotten the property. The difference being is that we made the decision at the time to buy it with general revenue dollars rather than Green Acres dollars because we recognized that at some point that property was going to become very valuable to the Township in one of several ways. If we had bought it with Green Acres dollars we never would have been able to develop the property, so we have a great luxury of being able to sit on the property, of being able to negotiate with the State at any time that we see fit to negotiate with the State or not, but we’re still in an excellent position. The story that ran in the Chronicle really didn’t tell the whole story in terms of where we are. Sometimes people who write newspapers like to glorify their story by making it sound like, you know what, the Township’s in a bad position. I can tell you from a personal perspective, it’s not much different than John’s position that the State really is taking an unreasonable position and it further really hardens my position that for us as a Township to get anything accomplished, it becomes incredibly more difficult because of the State of New Jersey is working against us and I know that I’m not speaking in any different fashion than all of the other municipalities that have to deal with the State. They’re not... in many ways they’re not working with us, they’re working against us. It’s unfortunate. If you want to say something to our Legislators, I just haven’t found that to be particularly beneficial to...
Mr. Mania: I can certainly mention it to Senator Oroho.

Mayor Greenbaum: Yes. I don’t think it’s going...

Mr. Mania: It may go on deaf ears, but nothing ventured, nothing gained.

Mayor Greenbaum: No matter what it said in the newspaper, we’re in a great position with respect to that property and it can be developed without removing the restrictions as Class A office space, which is kind of the ludicrous thing about it because it’s not going to remain as a pristine piece of property, it’s going to get developed in one way or another and if it gets developed as Class A office space, the State gets nothing.

President Nicastro: Really silly.

Mayor Greenbaum: It makes no sense whatsoever.

President Nicastro: Thank you. Any other Old Business? Any New Business? Mr. Canning…Sean, on the one thing I had mentioned to you at one of the meetings, we were in about, I wanted to find out about getting a few Post Office Boxes, I just wanted to update you…I mean mailboxes. I had asked Sean about…I saw it in some of the Towns, getting just a few mailboxes and painting them red, white and blue for where we can put flags in, where we can bring them because like myself, I have all these flags sitting in my house and don’t know really where to bring them. There are the depositories they have set up with Towns with mailboxes. I called the Post Office to find out about getting those mailboxes, but they stopped giving those out because of the terror threats, they are worried people would take them, make them look like mailboxes and then drop bombs and stuff in them and leave them, so they don’t want to be responsible to give them out to make them up. I did have a couple of links I’ll share with you on some other opportunities.

Mr. Canning: From that conversation…I was waiting for that, but we’ll start on our own and I’ll work with Lisa, we’re going to reach out to the VFW’s and American Legions, they are very active and care very much about that appropriately so, so we’ll come up with a solution because...

President Nicastro: That would be great.

Mr. Canning: …there’s a lot of people…its inappropriate, it’s illegal to throw a flag out...

President Nicastro: Right and they’re just sitting in my garage folded.

Mr. Canning: …and it has to be disposed of properly. The Eagle Scouts are very involved with the ceremonial burn, so we’ll get a solution.

President Nicastro: That’ll be great. Appreciate it. Thank you.

Mrs. Labow: On that note, I thought we were going to look into building a flag burning vault or type of a thing at Turkey Brook. Are we still...

Mr. Canning: Yes, that’s still in the works.

Mrs. Labow: That’s still in the works? Okay.

Mr. Canning: Yes. There are a couple of initiatives up there, one is the flag burning vault, the other one is the dog memorial. As a matter of fact, Jim Lynch just briefed me…we had our meeting this afternoon, the next order of business is the War Dog Memorial part of that, but the flag burning…it’s a long process and during the summer our public grounds people do nothing other than just our tournaments and events, so we’re back on the proactive stage again. That’ll be coming, I just can’t tell you when.

Mrs. Labow: If there was another…a Scout had contacted me, he’s looking for a project perhaps that might be something...

Mr. Canning: That would speed up the process.

Mrs. Labow: …he would be interested in. I’ll bring it up to him.

Mr. Canning: Absolutely.

Board of Health Report

President Nicastro: Health Department meets September 16th, here at 6:30 pm. Mr. Mania, Legislative or Planning?

Legislative Committee Report - none
Planning Board Report - none

Mr. Mania: Nothing.

President Nicastro: Thank you. Anyone from the public wish to be heard? Seeing none. Closed to the public. Council Comments, anyone? Mr. Amianda. We’ll go right down the line.

Mr. Amianda: I missed the swearing in of Mr. Greg Stewart into office. I take this opportunity to welcome Mr. Stewart to Council.

Mr. Stewart: Thank you.

Mr. Amianda: Secondly, I wanted to go back to some of our old issues we had here and what to do with the overcrowding in private houses and public housing in town. I’ve been investigating this issue and I came to this conclusion, I may be wrong. Ordinance governing of overcrowding in private and public housing is hard to enforce and must be revised for public good. The Council discussed this issue before, but we still have families of six, eight, nine or ten occupying an apartment with one, two, or three bedrooms and only one bathroom and toilet. This information was gathered by consort with the four public complexes we have in Town. The problem is lack of tenant and landlord leases and lack of enforcement of the Ordinance itself. When I spoke to some of these tenants this is what they said, it is not fair for tenants who complain of overcrowding in those complex apartments to be told by officials that and I quote, “we discussed the issue, the Ordinance is difficult to enforce because those people do not have a place to go. Overcrowding is difficult to control.” That is the end of the quote from the responses of the people that I received. Overcrowding puts pressure on our schools and on tax payers and that we should bear in mind and try to see if we can come up with a solution to why the Ordinance we have on the books is not being enforced.

President Nicastro: Mrs. Labow.

Mrs. Labow: I have question, what Ordinance are you talking about because I tried to have a stacking Ordinance enacted several years ago, but it didn’t go through. I don’t know that we have an Ordinance on the books...

Mr. Roman: We just did.

Mrs. Labow: We have...

Mr. Pasek: We just adopted one.

Mr. Roman: We just adopted one.

Mrs. Labow: We did? I missed it. I was out.

Mr. Mania: Yes.

Mrs. Labow: What is it doing, that Ordinance?

Mr. Pasek: It’s a space and occupancy Ordinance and essentially it sets the minimum square footage for bedrooms and the number of bedrooms in apartments.

Mayor Greenbaum: No more than two people in any house.

Mrs. Labow: In any house?

Mayor Greenbaum: Yes.

Mrs. Labow: I’m in trouble then with my house. I have a little teeny tiny house.

Mr. Amianda: The Ordinance…
MOUNT OLIVE TOWNSHIP COUNCIL MINUTES

September 8, 2015

Mrs. Labow: Eight hundred square feet, no nine hundred square feet.

Mayor Greenbaum: The key was we were approached by the Board of Education at the end of the school year last year about a problem that they're having with known situations of people who are living, not actually living in town, but bringing their kids up and using our school system. We didn't have an Ordinance in place that we could adequately enforce the stacking situation. We have since adopted that Ordinance, so now we can go about and apply the new Ordinance that we have to aid the School Board in terms of the stacking situation.

Mrs. Labow: What's the procedure on that? How are we doing that?

Mayor Greenbaum: I don't know what the procedure is, the Ordinance was just adopted. It will allow the Health Department now to adequately...

Mrs. Labow: It goes through the Health Department then?

Mayor Greenbaum: I believe it's through the Health Department.

President Nicastro: I believe we did discuss that somewhere. It came up earlier.

Mrs. Labow: I think it has to go through the Health Department.

Mayor Greenbaum: Yes.

President Nicastro: We don't meet again until September.

Mrs. Labow: Okay. That's good. That's only for the apartments...

Mr. Roman: No. The Ordinance if I recall regarded living space per person, how much living space you're required to have so it didn't just cover...

Mr. Pasek: It's all residential housing.

Mr. Roman: All residential housing.

Mrs. Labow: If somebody owns their house, they...

Mr. Roman: You cannot have 27 people, that's why I moved out of my house.

Mr. Mania: There's 28 in his.

Mr. Stewart: He left the 26 behind.

Mrs. Labow: That's interesting. The enforcement is going to come from the Health Department, you're going to discuss it at the next...

President Nicastro: I believe so, I remember there was a discussion of that already.

Mrs. Labow: ...Board of Health meeting, so we'll find out.

Mr. Roman: If I do recall, I don't think it had so much teeth in that Ordinance.

Mrs. Labow: I think that's what Daniel...why he's bringing it up. It's like, so what happens with it next.

President Nicastro: When we get through the Health Department we'll see...

Mr. Roman: Honestly, this is something that we should revisit in a Workshop Session and definitely...I would recommend that...

Mrs. Labow: After the next...

Mr. Roman: ...we bring it up for discussion at the next available meeting.

President Nicastro: Yes. We'll have our meeting on the 16th...
Mrs. Labow: On the 16th?

President Nicastro: ...and I can find out more from the Health side and then we can...

Mrs. Labow: Then we’ll do it...

President Nicastro: ...bring it up here on the 22nd if we want to put it on the Agenda for 22nd.

Mrs. Labow: Can we do that? Yes, so we find out...

President Nicastro: We can do that. Yes.

Mrs. Labow: ...exactly what’s going on.

Miss Masser: You want to discuss the stacking Ordinance on the 22nd?

President Nicastro: Yes. That’s fine. We’ll discuss that.

Mayor Greenbaum: Michelle if you would, could you send Colleen a copy of the stacking Ordinance by email.

Mrs. Labow: I’ll look it up.

Mayor Greenbaum: Yes.

Mrs. Labow: I missed that one.

President Nicastro: Send it out to everybody.

Miss Masser: I’ll send it everyone.

President Nicastro: Yes. We’ll all get it again, just in case. Thank you.

Mrs. Labow: Yes.

President Nicastro: Good. Thank you, Daniel.

Mrs. Labow: Thank you.

Miss Masser: You said the meeting is on the 16th?

President Nicastro: We have the Board of Health on the 16th. Yes.

Mrs. Labow: I’ll have a question because I’m trying to think, how it is legal to tell somebody how many people they can have living in their house if they own their house.

Mr. Roman: We lost a few people.

Mrs. Labow: Yes, I know.

President Nicastro: That’s the way it is.

Mr. Mania: You can have forty people in a two bedroom house.

President Nicastro: Anything else? Any other comments.

Mrs. Labow: I just want to say Happy Birthday to Mr. Roman. You’re almost half a century.

Mr. Roman: Don’t lie, 30 years old.

Mrs. Labow: 1970 you were born.

President Nicastro: Mr. Mania, any comments?
Mr. Mania: Yes. I just want to thank the Board of Health for the closing down of the massage parlors.

Mrs. Labow: Yes, but they didn’t get all of them.

President Nicastro: We didn’t do all of them.

Mrs. Labow: No, you didn’t get all of them.

President Nicastro: There wasn’t enough.

Mrs. Labow: You still have a few more.

President Nicastro: It wasn’t enough.

Mr. Mania: I too want to wish Alex a Happy Birthday.

Mr. Roman: Thank you.

President Nicastro: Mr. Roman, do you want to wish yourself a Happy Birthday?

Mr. Roman: I just want to add that these 29 years I’ve been alive have been very painstaking.

Mrs. Labow: He’s celebrating his 16th anniversary of his 29th birthday.

Mr. Roman: That’s it. It’s going to be 29 for the third time. Thank you everybody for the well wishes and I have nothing else to add. Thank you.

President Nicastro: Mr. Stewart.

Mr. Stewart: My only comment is that is a rough 29 years you got.

President Nicastro: Mr. Ferrante.

Mr. Ferrante: Nothing.

President Nicastro: I’m not going to wish him a Happy Birthday, I’ll wait till the next one since everybody already wished you one. Do we have a motion to adjourn?
